Local Businesses Team Up to Tackle Childhood Hunger

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla. – Over the last month, RCB Bank and Bob Moore Subaru teamed up to gather donations for the Oklahoma City Infant Crisis Center.

“The outpouring of support has been wonderful,” said Ashley Davis, VP Loan Officer at RCB Bank. “We were able to donate many items to this amazing organization.”

Corey Rucker, the manager at Bob Moore Subaru in northeast Oklahoma City, was also integral in gathering the items on the Infant Crisis Center’s wish list this year.

“Giving back to our community is important to Bob Moore Subaru, our customers and myself.” said Rucker. “Through the drive we collected an entire box of items and our employees loved seeing the participations from our customers and staff.”

Infant Crisis Services is located in Oklahoma City and provides diapers, food, formula and other essential items to families and babies in central Oklahoma.
