Kent Crain Makes Move to Wellington Location

WELLINGTON, Kan. – Loan officer Kent Crain is now serving Wellington’s financial lending needs. Previously, he was located at the RCB Bank location in Winfield.

“We are excited about Kent’s move into our Wellington market,” said Market President Larry Hoover. “He brings a wealth of experience in agricultural, commercial, consumer and real estate lending. He is eager to serve our existing customers as well as build new relationships with the community.”

Crain has 21 years of experience in banking and has been with RCB Bank for the last five years.

“I am really excited to meet new people and build relationships in this new market,” said Crain. “I enjoy being able to go out, meet customers and help them accomplish their personal and business goals.”

Until August 31, RCB Bank is offering rates as low as 1.79% APR¹ on your new, used or refinanced cars, boats, campers and ATVs. Come in today to talk with Kent about how we can get you a great deal.

Crain graduated from Oklahoma State University with a double major in Agricultural Economics and Accounting. He has been married to his wife Pam for 29 years and they share three adult children. He enjoys spending time with family, being outdoors, traveling and antiques.
