Christy Simonsen joins RCB Bank in Wichita

CLAREMORE, Okla. – RCB Bank welcomes Christy Simonsen to its Treasury Services Department in Wichita. In her new role, she will be a consultant to RCB Bank’s commercial customers, helping them find the best banking solutions for their current needs.

Simonsen brings a wealth of experience to RCB Bank and is known for her expertise in payments solutions, including bank cards. She has provided expert service to multiple organizations, helping them improve the use of resources and technology with payments solutions, resulting in a better customer experience.

Simonsen spent her childhood years on a farm and attended high school in Derby, Kansas. She graduated from Wichita State University, where she currently volunteers as an assistant coach with the WSU Spirit Squad.

“I am passionate about the benefits of learning through involvement on teams in school,” Simonsen said. “I am an advocate for banking careers and often speak to middle and high school students about the industry.”

When not working, Simonsen likes to golf, explore new and unique restaurants in the Wichita area, and organize events for her family, including her family’s annual Labor Day whiffle ball game.
